

Where

The site along Somerleyton Road is of strategic importance to the people of Brixton.

It borders the train line that divides Brixton town centre from the Somerleyton triangle. Although the site is just 400 yards from Brixton tube, it has considerably lower activity than the other side of the tracks. This reduces economic activity and community safety.

The majority of the site is owned by Lambeth Council.

Southwyck House

Somerleyton Road

Somerleyton Way – alley